Take your child's education "Outside the Box" with Hewitt . . .

Personalize Your Home Education

Just because your child is eight, it doesn't mean he or she will fit into a third-grade box. Consider your student's skills, not chronological age. Challenge his/her mind, but enable your child to succeed. What are your student's interests? A packaged "grade-three" curriculum doesn't take any of these into consideration.

Encourage Home School, Not School at Home

Firsthand experiences will excite your student's desire for learning. Great literature will help mature reasoning and understanding. Many parents switch to Hewitt because they have been burned out by an overly-structured academic curriculum. If you and your children are not enjoying your homeschooling, you need to make some changes.

Balance Character, Academics, Work, and Service

Academics are only one important aspect of your children's education. Strong moral character, self-discipline, and good manners will produce a person others enjoy being with. A strong work ethic and a servant's heart help provide balance.

Develop a Mind for a Lifetime of Use

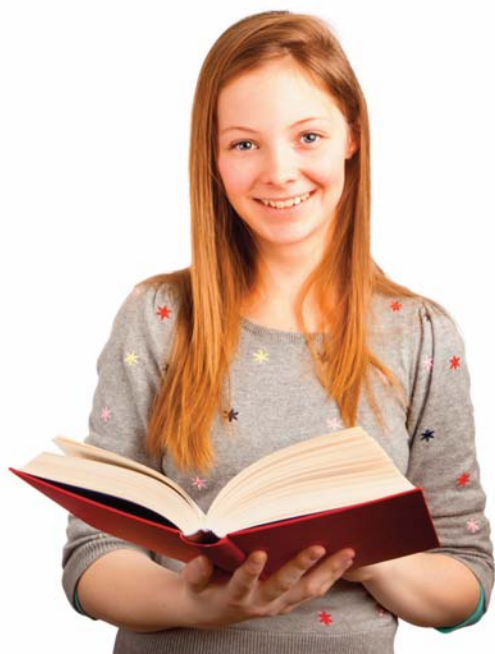

Students achieve excellence through a combination of enthusiasm, hard work, and the use of superior resources. You can create enthusiastic students by praising specific skills and encouraging them to do their best even at a young age. Hewitt offers a balanced, flexible, and complete approach to homeschooling. A lifelong, whole-hearted learner will be your result.

Hewitt's Senior High Philosophy

EVERYONE IS UNIQUE

Students are different in how they learn, what they enjoy, and in their educational goals. One of the great advantages of home schooling is the tremendous opportunity to fit the educational program to each child.

FLEXIBILITY IS KEY

Although we recommend specific texts, we work with you whenever other texts are desired. We also allow the creation of courses we do not currently offer (e.g., logic, SAT Prep, zoology).

PEOPLE LEARN BEST THROUGH ACTIVITY

We emphasize active participation on the students' parts in the learning process. For example, our history courses include many projects to allow students to learn and show what they've learned, through reading, writing, researching, drawing, building, acting, and even singing, rather than simply taking tests.

EDUCATION IS NOT ALL IN BOOKS

Therefore, we offer credit for work and volunteer experience, as well as educational travel. These experiences help develop such traits as discipline, compassion, and integrity. We've had students receive credit for such diverse activities as mission endeavors, running a business, training horses, acting as a museum guide, and traveling.

CRITICAL THINKING IS VITAL

Students need to learn how to think, to differentiate between fact and opinion, and to do research. Our approach emphasizes research, primary sources, and opinion essays.

INDEPENDENCE SHOULD BE FOSTERED

We want to become acquainted with our enrollees. We encourage our students to take charge of their education and to contact us with questions or problems (of course, parents can do the same).

Senior High Services

WHAT YOU GET

We provide structure, guidance, grades, credits, transcripts, and diplomas. Counseling is also available by letter, phone, fax, or e-mail. Letter grades are given each quarter, but they are a small part of the evaluations. In addition, your student's work will receive personal attention, often with specific suggestions for improvement. Our evaluators strive to be supportive, realistic, and educational in their comments.

WHAT YOU DO

Submit the registration form on pages 27–28 and payment for either the full year or the first month. When we receive the registration form, we will mail a student I.D. card, questionnaires to complete and return, and a High School Handbook. Questionnaires are also available on line to expedite your enrollment. Someone will call or e-mail once the questionnaires are received to help you make course/text choices. You have 12 months to complete your academic year.

GRADUATION

Upon completion of all Hewitt requirements, a diploma is issued. To qualify for our diploma, students must complete a minimum of 21 credits of study and score satisfactorily on an achievement test, college board exam, or GED. If you submit your state's graduation requirements, we can build a program to match them. Our diplomas and credits have been accepted by the armed forces, public and private high schools, community colleges, and universities.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Our high school is a four-year program. We welcome transfer students and will work with them to accept as many courses as possible. We will also provisionally accept a parent's transcript of a home-schooled student's high school credits.

ACCREDITATION

We have chosen not to become accredited by the government or by an independent accrediting agency, because we do not want an accrediting body to dictate the courses, textbooks, and teachers that we must employ. Many state and private colleges and universities are accepting students without an accredited diploma. You can ask for a copy of a list of approximately 75 colleges/univ. that have accepted Hewitt's transcript/diploma.

Thank you for the effort you put into evaluating my work, and especially for encouraging me in my writing. I went from feeling that I was a mediocre writer to feeling that I could write anything if I put my head and my heart into it. I learned to like writing with Hewitt, and that is very special to me.—Joanne Gerell, 2011

Senior High Tracks

Basic Track

Our Basic track is meant for students who are not academically inclined and/or are not interested in pursuing college. Remember, this is not a formal system, and you are in no way locked in. This is simply an example of how a student not planning on college might meet our graduation requirements.

College Prerequisites

College-bound students should contact college admissions offices early during high school to request entrance requirements so they can prepare to meet them. If a major has been chosen, electives should be selected from that specific subject area. These students should take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Test (ACT) early in their junior or senior year.

Syllabi

Many of our math and all of our science syllabi now include daily schedules which would be helpful to non-enrolled students. Unless specified, test answers are NOT included with syllabi.

The rule of thumb for grading is that if you have an answer key, you grade the work. If you don't, our teachers grade the work.

See a complete evaluation at www.HewittHS.com under "Teacher Services."

Students using Lightning Literature may submit each English paper electronically for teachers to correct within two weeks of receipt and return them via email. Grades will still be assigned at the end of the quarter. Students may also elect to submit all the English papers at the end of each quarter. Available for single-course options and junior-high or senior-high full programs.

Single-Course Option

Perhaps you feel comfortable grading all subjects but English or history. Or maybe you want to test our program before investing in a full-time package. You can enroll in a single course and get evaluations, phone help, and transcript for any class. Our English program probably gets the most compliments. We set out to challenge your student to constantly work on and improve his or her ability to communicate clearly. This applies not only to grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc., but also to the content itself. We expect the student's move from our high-school senior English program to any college to be almost unnoticeable. If you are looking for some help, but not for everything, we think you and your student will appreciate the input.

My daughter and I found the British: Early to Mid 19th Century guide to be a very comprehensive study of the period’s literature in addition to an aid to developing critical analysis and composition skills. . . . The lessons are well written and clear so that your child can do this study independently. The teacher guide makes it very easy for you as the parent to grade the work and gauge how well your child is doing throughout the lessons.—Barbara Campbell

Most Christians know the name Elisabeth Elliot and her experiences which are recounted in Through Gates of Splendor. She, her husband Jim, and daughter Valerie were missionaries in Ecuador over fifty years ago. Jim and four other young men were martyred while trying to share the gospel.

This is the only novel Mrs. Elliot (now Gren) ever wrote. It's the tale of Margaret Sparhawk and her adventures in Ecuador. But it is so much more. Lucy Austen, author of our American and British Christian authors, got permission for us to reprint this book to use in her new Lightning Lit guide. We were thrilled to do so. While we highly recommend that you take the course, even if you don't, please have your students read this well-crafted novel. It challenges many preconceptions and viewpoints that Christians often take for granted. This takes critical thinking to a level beyond just literature and into the lofty heights of theology, but in a very practical manner. Don't miss this opportunity to explore your own ideas of God while being led by the hand by an author you can trust! (Grades 9–12)

We may not say that we have the answers. Questions of how to conduct oneself as a Christian, or how to serve as a Christian, must be answered by life itself—the life of the individual in his direct responsible relationship to God.
—Elisabeth Elliot

Lightning Lit Authors

Elizabeth Kamath has a B.A. in psychology and worked many years as a technical writer. She had over ten years experience grading home-school student English papers before she began developing curriculum for Hewitt. She has written eight of the current fifteen Lightning Lit guides. Elizabeth and her husband homeschool their two sons, Tobias Akira, now eight, and Simon Ilya, currently three, who manage to keep her busy (as well as being test-subjects for the new elementary Lightning Lit). She is currently working on the new Grade-2 Lightning Lit curriculum.

Born in North Carolina, Michael Gaunt has had the pleasure of living in many different parts of the U.S. and abroad. He met his wife, Alex, while they were in graduate school studying medieval history at the University of York in England. Upon his return to the States in 1998, he went to work as a teacher/counselor at Hewitt Homeschooling Resources where he has been ever since. Years of experience working with homeschooling students and families have helped him to revamp many of Hewitt's class offerings to better meet the needs of the homeschooling community as well as to recognize the variety of situations and the flexibility of approaches required to best serve each student. He also worked with Elizabeth Kamath in the development of the Lightning Lit program. After his five-year-old twins, he is proudest of the high level of achievement of his students, both at Hewitt and in their lives after Hewitt.

Lucy S. R. Austen is a freelance writer, editor, and homeschooling mother who loves sharing her enjoyment of reading, writing, and thinking. She was homeschooled from Kindergarten through sixth grade, and again in eleventh grade, before going on to earn a B.A. in English from the University of Washington. She has worked for Hewitt Homeschooling Resources as a high-school English evaluator, and as editor of Spring Hill Review, a journal of Pacific Northwest culture. Her textbooks, British Christian Authors and American Christian Authors, have been published by Hewitt as part of their Lightning Literature & Composition series.

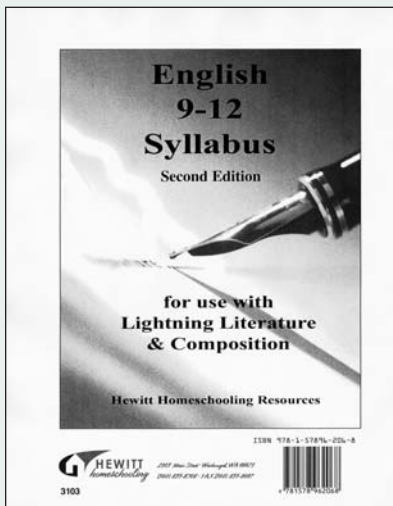

Brenda S. Cox is an American who has spent most of her adult life living and working in the Middle East. She homeschooled her four children, and several other students, through high school. She currently trains people in teaching and learning Arabic, and will soon complete a master's degree in applied linguistics, Lord willing. She also enjoys teaching Arabic to her oldest granddaughter! Brenda has friends of many nationalities and loves to share the joys of different languages and cultures with others. She has written articles and stories about languages and cultures for children and adults, as well as a book, Who Talks Funny? A Book about Languages for Kids.

English Courses

English Syllabi for Lightning Lit ♦ Grades 9–12

If you have students enrolled in Hewitt and use the Lightning Lit program, you must choose and order the appropriate syllabus for your students—either basic, regular, or honors. Each contains all four high-school years in one syllabus. The BASIC program is for those students who struggle with reading and writing and need additional work in grammar, and uses only one Lightning Lit class per year. The REGULAR series is for average college-preparatory students. The HONORS program is for students who need a greater challenge and requires an additional book report per quarter. Regular and Honors require two Lightning Lit classes per year. Enrolled students also do a year-long research paper for grades 10 through 12. 40+ pages in each.

- #3102 Basic English 9–12: 2nd Edition..... $7.00
- #3103 English 9–12: 2nd Edition $7.00
- #3104 Honors English 9–12: 2nd Edition $7.00

NOTE TO STUDENTS ENROLLED WITH HEWITT FOR ENGLISH

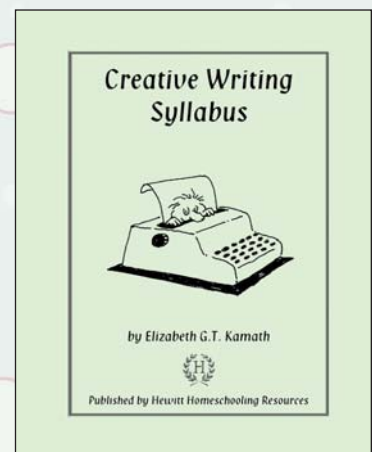

You are also required to do vocabulary each year. You may either use words from your reading to make your own list (the syllabus explains how to do this), or you may use any vocabulary program of your choice. We particularly like Vocabulary from the Classical Roots (Note: most of the Vocabulary for Enjoyment books are now out of print.) You should also have an English Handbook to use as a resource when writing. We particularly like the Write Source Handbooks (www.greatsource.com), but you need buy only one handbook for junior high and one for senior high (not one every year).

If you are doing the “Basic” English program, you will also need to incorporate grammar into your studies. Again, you may choose any program you wish.

Creative Writing Syllabus ♦ One Year, Grades 9–12

by Elizabeth Kamath. This year-long course covers plotting, conflict, character development, point of view, dialogue, figurative speech, and more. Although intended primarily for short story and novel writing, aspiring playwrights and script writers will also find it instructional. Poetry is not covered.

Since all projects are writing-based, the course cannot be used for an English credit. No text is required; can only be taken as an elective. Quarterly schedule, bibliography, 42 pages. #2539 ... $7.00

Bible Courses

Senior High I Dare You! Course ♦ One Year, Grades 9-12

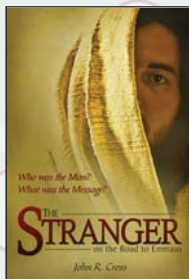

The goal of this course is three-fold: (1) to look at what you believe about God, yourself, and the world, i.e., your worldview, using Susan Schaeffer Macaulay's How to Be Your Own Selfish Pig; (2) to challenge yourself to be "your own self, at your best, all the time using William Danforth's I Dare You; (3) to think about those around you—at home, in your community, and abroad using web resources. The course is wrapped up with Do Hard Things written by Gregg Harris' twin sons. Students will also read and respond to the New Testament (except for the Gospels and Revelation). Take the challenge and lay a foundation that your student can build on for the rest of his/her life. †

State History & World Geography

State History ♦ 1/2 Year, Grades 9-12

This is a two-quarter course. Students use the library, Internet, and other resources to learn about their state. Maps and reports are required and a list of possible projects is included. No text necessary, 4 pages. #1035 ... $2.00

During the process of enrolling in different classes at the university I came to appreciate the quality of education I received through Hewitt Homeschooling—and especially the English that was taught and consulted by you. Out of six thousand incoming freshmen in University at Buffalo only twenty-two students made it to the advanced English class—I was one of them! Without your help and guidance I'm not sure I would be there. I must say that before enrolling into the Hewitt program I was afraid of English, hated reading, and despised writing. In five years you turned me into a bookworm! I am enjoying studying, writing, and reading. I appreciate all the work you've done for me and the great advice and support you've provided me with during my years with Hewitt Homeschooling. —Barbara Bradley, 2010

World Geography ♦ 1 Year, Grades 9-12

Mapping the World by Heart

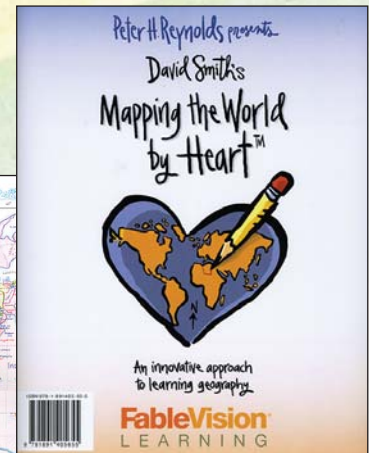

Students will be amazed at how well they can draw a world map from memory at the end of the program. Though written for the classroom, this approach is very flexible and easily adapted to home use; the student can study only sections of the world or tackle it all at once. Provides a downloadable film to watch.

Requires a current atlas. Current almanac and other resources (library, Internet, etc.) are also useful. (Grades 5-12)

Texts: Streams of Civilization: Volume One and Volume Two. (Teacher's manuals and test booklets are not required.) 56 pages. #1892 . . . $8.00

I wanted to brief you on what's going on with Joshua [full-time Hewitt student for four years]. He is doing very well in his studies He would like to use his new skills on the mission field. His English Composition professor praised his writing abilities, saying he was well prepared for college level writing. This is due to your positive feedback and critique through the four years of high school. So thank you. The funny thing is, Joshua says he did more writing in high school than he has in college.—Stephany McGinnis

Art History ♦ 1 Year, Grades 9-12

The Story of Art

This book covers art history from ancient to modern times. We looked a long time for a good art-history book—one that wasn't too skimpy or too bogged down in detail—and this book fit the bill. The author writes in an engaging style while covering all important information for a year-long high-school level art-history course. Beautiful color reproductions throughout (NOTE: The text contains some nudes [paintings and statues]).

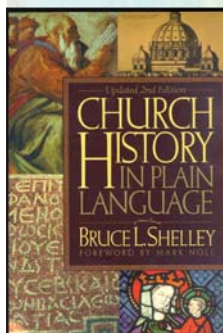

The Syllabus covers ancient to modern Western art (with a brief nod towards Eastern art) including information on art styles and movements, and particular artists and their works. Syllabus requirements include papers, projects, and a test each quarter, 30 pages.

by Dr. Thomas A. Fudge. Church history with all of its warts and halos. This set of 10 DVDs with 38 lectures and hundreds of illustrations gives an in-depth study from the beginning through the Reformation. (High school/adult) Don't expect a white-washed view of church history. Dr. Fudge holds two Phds: one in medieval history from Cambridge with a specialization on Jan Hus, and the other in theology. He was awarded teacher of the year; and currently is a professor at The University of New England in Armidale, Australia. †

Why Study Church History?

The strongest faith is the examined faith. The faith that is most useable is rooted in time and history. Men and women in prior centuries not only passed the faith on to succeeding generations, but in the process became part of the faith and of Christian history. The church is not a place one goes to, but a meaningful and vibrant community one may experience and participate in. The study of Church history means to come to terms with the living faith of the dead. A society which has no history is like a person with no memory. Being detached from our personal histories can cause alienation and isolation. The same is true of the faith. The study of Church history brings the student—regardless of age—into contact with the past, creates a meaningful faith in the present, and connects on to the future of God's work in our world of time and history. When the time had fully come, God sent God's son ... We should know how that came to pass and what difference that event made in the world.—Dr. Thomas A. Fudge

- #3359 Foreign Language Syllabus: German (150+ pages)..... $10.00
- #3358 Foreign Language Syllabus: French (150+ pages) $10.00
- #3360 Foreign Language Syllabus: Generic (no reading, 56 pages) $8.00

These syllabi match Rosetta Stone's Version 3 and 4 editions and gives recommendations for curricula for two years of high-school study. It also gives daily assignments, additional reading practice for the language, and recommendations for both regular and honors foreign language credit. The generic syllabus, #3360, is for use with any other language.

Foreign Language Syllabus: Fourth Edition

This older version syllabus matches Rosetta Stone's Version 2 and gives recommendations for curricula for two years of high-school study as well as for lower grades. While the suggestions apply to any language, French, Spanish, German, and Latin are dealt with specifically. #2326 ... $7.00

Rosetta Stone: We still recommend Rosetta Stone as the best language learning curriculum, but no longer sell it. You may buy it directly from them. Each level now equals one year of high school experience. If you have Version 2 or prior, each level equals two years of high school credit.

Four Easy Ways to Order

FOUR WAYS TO ORDER

ONLINE

www.HewittHS.com

Order 24/7 online. Includes every product in this catalog and some which are not in it. To receive notification of new products sign up on our website on the Books/Materials page.

BY PHONE

Call toll-free to 800-348-1750, Monday through Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (PST/PDT). Overseas call 360-835-8708.

BY FAX

Fill in all information, including a daytime phone number where we can reach you if there is a question about your order. Fax the order form to 1-360-835-8697.

BY e-MAIL

Fill in all requested information, including a daytime phone number in case we need to reach you. Send information to customerservice@hewitthomeschooling.com

RETURNS

Returned products must be current, resalable, and returned within 90 days. Follow the return instructions included with your order.

DEFECTIVE OR DAMAGED PRODUCTS

Please report any incorrect, damaged, or defective items immediately by calling or emailing. Claims for damaged items must be made within one week of receipt.

PRICES

Prices are subject to change without notice and will be adjusted on your order.

ENROLLMENT

Complete both sides of the enrollment form on pages 27–28 and mail it to us with payment. Once we receive your registration, we will process it within five working days and send you a welcome letter, handbook, and questionnaires.

MISSIONARY DISCOUNT

Missionaries serving under the auspices of a mission board can receive a 10% discount on tuition (but not book purchases). With your registration, include a letter from your mission board verifying your status.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

If you do not have a stateside shipping address, you must pay an additional postage fee with your initial registration fee. The Payment Plan is not available outside of the United States.

WITHDRAWALS

Withdrawal requests must be made in writing during the first six months of enrollment. You may be entitled to a refund for unused services. Each account will be reviewed individually, and refunds will be granted on a prorated basis. Refunds for services are made to the method of original payment.

MAIL ORDERS

All orders from individuals must be prepaid. Make your check or money order payable to Hewitt Homeschooling Resources. All payments must be made in U.S. funds and clearable through the Federal Reserve System. Please do not send cash.

PURCHASE ORDERS

We accept official business purchase orders from firms based in the United States in the exact amount of the order including shipping. Terms are net 30. The purchase order may be faxed or mailed, and must be signed by an authorized individual. New accounts are subject to credit approval.

DELIVERY

We usually ship within two business days. Please allow up to two weeks for delivery of items in stock. Back orders are shipped at no extra cost. Book orders are not charged to your account until they are shipped either by UPS or USPS.

IN A HURRY?

Credit card orders can be sent UPS Next Day, UPS 2nd Day, or UPS 3rd Day. Actual shipping charges plus a $5.00 handling fee will be billed to your credit card.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

Office and switchboard hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (PST/PDT), Monday through Thursday. The bookstore at 2103 Main Street, Washougal, WA, is open during office hours.

Our Appreciation

Hewitt, a not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) corporation, partners with parents to educate their children. Donations (over services/merchandise costs) are tax-deductible and greatly appreciated.
