

Week 20

Make Way for Ducklings

by
Robert McCloskey

Monday

When you have a list in a sentence, you separate the things in the list with commas. For example, The ducklings' names were Jack, Kack, Lack, Mack, Nack, Ouack, Pack, and Quack.

Put commas where they belong in these sentences.

Example: My favorite fruits are oranges, cherries, and mangos.

1. Some birds that swim are ducks geese swans and penguins.

Monday cont.

2. She put broccoli peppers noodles and shrimp in the stir fry.

3. At the zoo we saw elephants camels zebras and giraffes.

Tuesday

Put the commas where they belong. Underline any words that should start with a capital letter.

1. this year i have read about people named harold peter momo joseph and alexander.
2. ducklings are born in march april or may.
3. in this book the ducks see beacon hill the charles river and louisberg square.

Monday

You have learned to end a sentence with a period or an exclamation point. When a sentence asks a question, we end it with a question mark.

Example: Who are you?

If the sentence asks a question, put a question mark at the end.
If it does not, put a period at the end.

Example: Where is Stellanuna?

She is on the branch.

1. Who wrote this book
2. Janell Cannon wrote this book
3. Has she written other books

Monday cont.

4. Yes, she has written five other books
