

Onomatopoeia

Underline all the words in the sentences that are examples of onomatopoeia.

1. Daniel awoke to the baa of sheep and the maa of goats, and he realized he was lying in a field.
2. Syvie shivered—brrr—as the wind whooshed down the chimney.
3. Mr. Singh's keys clinked and clanked as he slowly thumped down the hall.
4. Isabella loved to sit in the stable where the only sounds were the neigh of the horses and coo of the doves.
5. Eddy tried to approach the house quietly, but the gravel crunched under his feet, and the gate creaked as he opened it.