

Concrete and Abstract Nouns

Underline the nouns in these sentences (don't forget the proper nouns). Write the first letter of each concrete noun in the spaces after "concrete noun" at the bottom of the page to spell out another concrete noun. Then do the same with the abstract nouns to spell out another abstract noun.

1. You need patience to cook oatmeal or lentils.
2. Ivy felt envy about Violet and Eugene's new beagle.
3. Anger will not help catch the rat.
4. Ants may be small, but they still deserve our compassion.
5. There was excitement that their niece and cousins were coming to Honolulu.

Concrete noun: ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___ ___

Abstract noun: ___ ___ ___ ___ ___