

Pronouns: Antecedents

Underline the pronouns and draw an arrow from each pronoun to its antecedent.

1. Calen and Sabrina tricked their brother, and he chased them around the house.
2. Ms. Umar told her class they needed to study hard to pass the test because it was difficult.
3. After Jon cleaned the stairs they were so slippery that he fell down them.
4. Claudette said the backpack was hers, but Jacob claimed it was his.
5. The team wanted their coach to let them go home, but she said they needed to run three more laps.
6. Gabbi mailed herself a postcard from Hawaii so she could remember how beautiful it was.