

Simple Subject and Predicate

In each sentence, draw a line to separate the subject from the predicate. Underline the simple subject and the simple predicate.

1. The loud crow cawed all morning.
2. Two little girls ran down the lane.
3. The strong runner won the race easily.
4. All the computers crashed at the same time.
5. Your books fell behind the shelf.
6. Suddenly, Valorie jumped over the hedge.
7. My car needs gas and oil.