Writing a Comparison/Contrast Paper

When you are asked to write a comparison/contrast paper, you should start by brainstorming the similarities and differences of your chosen topics. Use this form to help organize that information. Remember with brainstorming you want to list as many ideas as possible. You are free to leave some out of the final paper.

My two topics: _____ _____

Similarities

Differences