

Week 1

Harold and the Purple Crayon

by Crockett Johnson

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Day One

A sentence always starts with a capital letter. It usually ends with a period.

Always capitalize the first word of a sentence and capitalize people's names.

Underline the correct words.

Example: The/the sandy beach reminded harold/Harold of picnics.

1. My/my brother simon/Simon loves when I read to Him/him.
2. Purple/purple is Harold's/harold's favorite color.
3. my/My friend priya/Priya lives in a Big/big building like one that Harold/harold drew.

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Day Two

Oh no! Someone wrote this paragraph and didn't use any capital letters. Please underline all the words that should start with a capital letter. The first two are done for you.

i read a book about a boy named harold and his purple crayon. this book was written by a man named crockett johnson. he also wrote a book about a girl named lisa and her stuffed lion.
before he wrote these, he drew a comic about a boy named barnaby.

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Harold and the Purple Crayon

What this story is about:

Harold and the Purple Crayon

What I think of this story:

My favorite sentence:

Alphabet Page of Colors

Fill in a color for each letter of the alphabet.

A

G

B

H

C

I

D

J

E

K

F

L

Alphabet Page of Colors

M

T

N

U

O

V

P

W

Q

X

R

Y

S

Z

Day Four

Fill in the blanks with any names you want.
End the sentence with a period.

1. _____ and _____
are my best friends

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Week 2

Madeline

by Ludwig Bemelmans

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Day One

We capitalize the names of months (January, February, March, etc.)

We capitalize the names of days (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, etc.)

We capitalize the word I.

Underline the words that should start with a capital letter. The first two have been done for you.

february

i

winter

flowers

house

friday

today

june

wednesday

august

october

month

appendix

tiger

monday

year

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Day Two

Underline the words in the sentences that should start with capital letters but don't. Remember last week's rules.

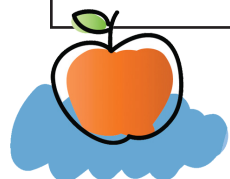

1. we go on vacation every august.
2. you and i should meet this thursday.
3. are we going with joe or with pedro this saturday?
4. my favorite month is april even though my birthday is in july.

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

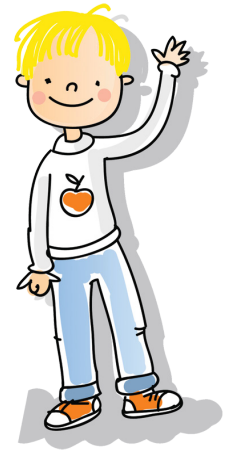

Madeline

What this story is about:

Madeline

What I think of this story:

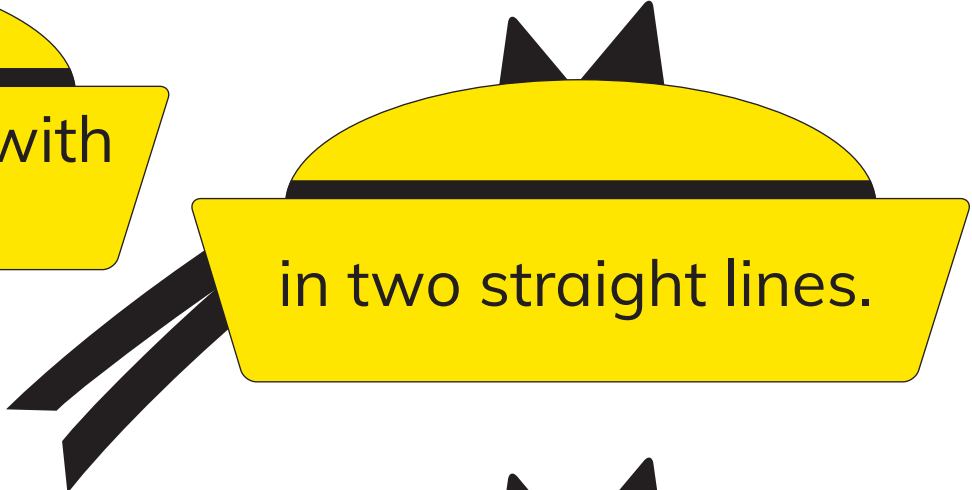

My favorite sentence:

Madeline

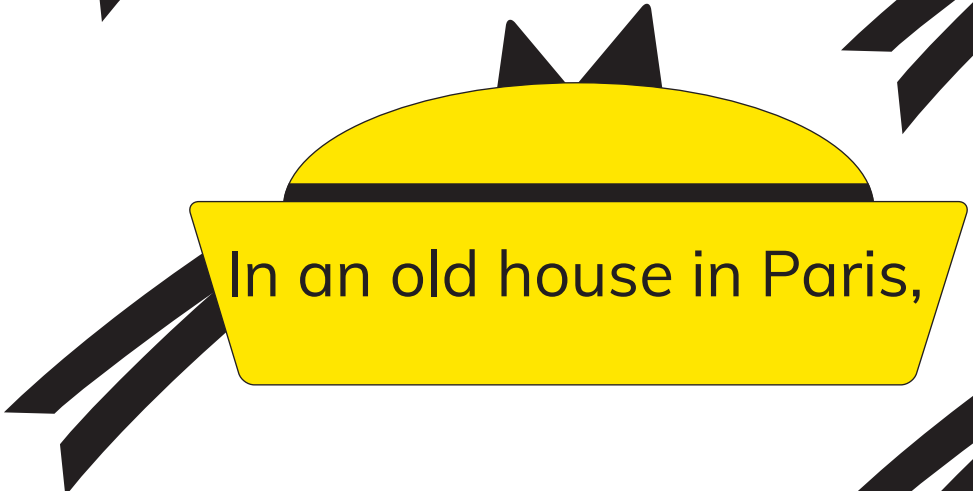

Number these hats 1, 2, 3, and 4 so that the sentence is in the same order as in the book.

that was covered with
vines,

in two straight lines.

In an old house in Paris,

lived twelve little girls

This Page Intentionally Left Blank

Day Four

Fill in the blanks in this sentence. Use capital letters in all the right places.
The first blank is either I or i.

_____ was born in the month of

_____.

The day was a

_____.

